

Worksheet 1: Getting Started

As you explore the albums curated for this project, use this space to write down your initial thoughts. Which ones stand out to you? What do you like and/or not like?

Once you've had a listen through, pick an album or piece you find particularly interesting, that you'd like to focus on for this project.

Your chosen album/piece:

Where can you look to find information about your chosen album/piece and composer? Make a list of some sources you can start with in your research.

